IRISH RESISTANCE IS AT END, SAYS GOVERNOR GENERAL

ERIN AS TRANQUIL AS ENGLAND, PRESS IS TOLD.

MANY IMPRISONED Belfast Refusal to Appoint Boundary Commissioner Scored by Chief.

(By Associated Press.) London.—"Ireland today is as tranquil as Great Britain," said Timothy Healy, governor-general of the Irish Free State, in an interview in the Daily Express, prior to his return to Ireland Wednesday night after conversations with the imperial authorities here regarding Irish affairs.

"The Free State now is established definitely, despite internal assaults that have been made on it," he said. He added that, now peace had been established, the Free State government was intensifying its pre-occupation with how to terminate the situation in which, to its sorrow, it found itself still holding 10,000 Irishmen. The government's purpose, he said, was to release those prisoners as rapidly as possible, without exposing the public to a recurrence of disorder. They are now being freed at the rate of about 300 weekly.

The governor-general complained at the continued refusal of the northern government to appoint a boundary commissioner to cooperate with Great Britain and the Free State in settling the boundary between the two divisions of the country. He also decried the Belfast authorities for keeping more than 300 Free State sympathizers interned "on nothing but suspicion."

BELOIT BOYS INJURED IN GUN BLAST

(By Associated Press.) Ray Witte, Beloit boy, has not recovered consciousness. It was reported at the Beloit hospital late Thursday. Witte was blind in the right eye and his face horribly disfigured from the effects of the explosion. If he recovers from the fractured skull, nurses said.

Delavan.—Three Beloit boys, ranging in ages from 15 to 18, were injured in an accident at the assembly grounds on Delavan lake. Rex Witte was the most severely injured, having suffered a fractured skull. Foster Newton had an arm broken and the eye fractured from the wrist to the shoulder. Ray Johnson had his eyes filled with powder, but physicians believe his sight will be saved.

Three boys were on an outing here. One of the boys was loading a cannon while it was still hot and, when the explosion occurred, the ramrod struck him in the head. Resorters here rushed all the boys to the hospital. Witte has a chance to recover.

RECORDS BROKEN ON FIGHT SERVICE FOR THE GAZETTE

More copies of the Daily Gazette Fight extra were sold Wednesday evening than for any previous extra in the history of the paper. Those who got the extra were able to read the running story of the fight, the excitement and all the vivid scenes at Shelby ahead of any other newspaper in the state reaching this section. Accurate information was in that extra and it was sold in large quantities.

The "Associated Press" leased wire ran from the Gazette office into the press box at the ringside at Shelby. There were 1500 miles of wire and a tap at Shelby was responded to here in the Gazette office.

Beside the Gazette had its sporting editor at the ringside and was sending stories during the afternoon of side lights and incidents and a review of the situation just before the battle. Other articles and letters came from the pen of Mr. Sinclair. The Gazette was the only paper published in a city of the size of Janesville to have its sporting editor at the spot and is a part of its field without question.

In front of the Gazette office was a crowd of two thousand people Wednesday afternoon and evening and to them the record was set. The Gazette was the only paper published in a city of the size of Janesville to have its sporting editor at the spot and is a part of its field without question.

SOLDIER BOARD OF REHABILITATION IS BACKED BY BLAINE

GOVERNOR SIGNS BILL FOR ADMINISTERING OF MILLION.

SCHOOL HOLIDAYS Washington and Lincoln Birthdays Set Aside; Beaver Farms Given O. K.

(By Associated Press.) Madison.—Wisconsin made another advance in its provision for rehabilitation of disabled veterans of the "World" war, with Governor Blaine signing Thursday the Sachtien bill, creating a soldier rehabilitation board to administer a $1,000,000 fund for care of ex-service men suffering as a result of their experiences.

The state, under terms of the new law, is in a position to lend assistance to veterans providing they are not receiving compensation from the federal government.

Holidays Provided.—The birthdays of George Washington and Abraham Lincoln are once again to be holidays for Wisconsin school children. Governor Blaine assured school recognition of these two occasions by signing the Sachtien bill including Feb. 12 and Feb. 22 among the days set aside as legal holidays for schools. This new law requires that appropriate exercises be held in all schools commemorating the birthdays of two outstanding characters of Americans.

Beaver Farms Allowed.—Beaver farms may take their place alongside of the variety of other wild life propagation schemes in Wisconsin as a result of the governor's signature to a fish and game commission bill permitting the raising of these beaver animals.

The new law provides that persons owning land on which beaver houses are located may seek to domesticate the animals for propagation.

Lightning Plays Peculiar Prank at Milton Farm House

Here's another jolt to the old theory that lightning never strikes the same place twice. A year ago lightning struck a tree near the farm of R. L. Cary, Milton, and, striking into the house on wires, broke a mirror. The insurance company replaced the mirror and the new one was placed in the same position.

During the severe storm around Milton Wednesday, lightning struck another tree in the yard, was carried into the house on wires and cracked the new mirror.

During the height of the storm more than 40 cars were stalled along the road out of Milton. One car broke down on the culvert bridge, blocking the road. Many of the machines were mired, for hours.

Cloudburst Hits Sections of Rock County on Fourth

While Janesville remained "bone dry," a cloudburst descended on Rock county late Wednesday, scattering holiday crowds, washing out corn and tobacco fields and covering highways with young lakes.

Many sections reported a terrific downpour, accompanied by a sharp electrical display with more or less damage. Milton's Legion celebration, in the village park, attended by hundreds of persons, was brought to a sudden halt. In less than an hour, 3.2 inches of rain fell.

Excavations and ditches of the new sewerage and waterworks system, under construction since the fall of 1926, were being poured over state and county highways around the village, and fields were inundated.

Reports from other towns indicate that they were treated mildly by the cloudburst, which deluged Milton and Milton Junction. Jefferson was badly drenched and it came at a time when the crops were in the early stages of growth.

MOVIES OF FIGHT TO CAUSE RUMPU

Violation of U. S. Interstate Shipment Law will be Charged, Claim.

(By Associated Press.) Chicago.—Reports that moving pictures of the Dempsey-Gibbons fight at Shelby Wednesday were en route to Chicago by airplane, led to the announcement Thursday by United States District Attorney E. A. Olson that the exhibitors who attempt to show them will be arrested or warrants charging violation of the federal law prohibiting interstate shipment of fight films.

It was reported a prominent movie picture news agency was shipping the films to a Chicago exhibitor, who would exhibit them Thursday.

NEGRO DECIDES TO LEAVE TOWN AFTER CHASE BY 'FRIENDS'

"The leavin' town right this minute, boss. I've on my way to Kansas now. These fellas are goin' to see this nigger no more."

So saved a frightened negro to Deputy Sheriff Charles Burdick, Wednesday night.

George Washington Peterson, Kansas negro, employee of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul railroad, objected to the arrest of some of his fellow travelers working five miles east of Janesville, near the Emerald Grove road.

It seems that George Washington Peterson took it upon himself to argue with a score of the 75 negroes living in the road camp.

Before George had the opportunity to explain his beliefs on the matter, Sheriff Burdick was traveling down the road at a pace that would have made Charlie Ray envious, followed by 15 angry colored men.

George found refuge in the house of William Scott, town of Avon farmer. Scott ordered the negroes off of the farm and called the sheriff's office. The men were disbanded by Deputy Sheriff Burdick and Peterson taken to town. He left Janesville Wednesday night for his Kansas home.

Rotardale Boys Home, Saturday

First period Rotardale campers will return to this city in trucks and automobiles Saturday afternoon, leaving so as to arrive in Janesville about 4 p. m. They will disband at the Chamber of Commerce. They will, week ago Wednesday, go to camp.

The period is a successful one, and the enthusiasm being shown by the present campers will probably result in a future period being filled.

The second camp starts Monday for another 10 days and boys are asked to be at the Chamber of Commerce at 9 a. m. Monday for medical examination. This came at 3 p. m. for the first group, and somewhat delayed its getting away.

THOUSANDS ATTEND JANESVILLE'S BEST FOURTH CELEBRATION

presentation of a noted one and to live forever in the annals of Janesville. The Indian life with its spectacular incidents, the capture of the Hall girls, the wedding of White Rose Hawk, the speech of Black Hawk, the sensational abduction of Blue Bird by Strong Bow and all the rest including the battle on the front line and the surrender of Black Hawk, the dragons, was as true to history as the limitations of pageantry could make them.

The pioneer scenes with the dances and action, the men and women of those days whose names and deeds are a part of Janesville's and Rock county's records, the costumes, the bits of by-play and all the colorful costumes, made these among the best and recipients of applause.

Receipts from the pageant Tuesday evening were $1400 and on Wednesday, $1800. The threatening storm and the storm itself which swept all the section around Janesville frightened hundreds away, or kept them at home. It was reported in Milton that Janesville was in darkness and that pageant had been viewed in many places about the city, rain fell in torrents and reports from every section showed that Janesville, with a delightful night, cool enough to be comfortable and with only a few rain drops, was a favored locality. "Lady Luck," which had been present all through the day and Wednesday night was still on the job.

Ralph Jack, leader of the high school band, was one of the features with his announcements.

"The outstanding need in the life of our nation and in the life of the world is religion," said Assemblyman Alexander E. Matheson in his independence day address in the court house park Wednesday morning. Approximately 500 heard the address and the old fashioned patriotic exercises attending it.

"Drawing examples from the scriptures and history," Mr. Matheson stressed the need of religion in all lines of endeavor. "Though we have wealth, riches, present power and opportunities and religious and charitable agencies and everything else, if we lack the spiritual leavening, if we lack the moral force, we are failing as a nation," was the message that he left with his hearers.

The invocation was given by the Rev. F. E. Case, "America," by the band; Declaration of Independence, Miss Phyllis Luchsinger; and Lincoln's Gettysburg address, Albert Scott, gave two selections. "The Boys of the Old Brigade," and "When the Flag Goes By," by the Bower City Quartet composed of J. A. Olsen, E. Van Pelt, E. K. Doane and J. C. Koller; the "Star Spangled Banner," by the band completed the patriotic program.

Many Novel Contests.

The ring schedule started at 11 a. m. with a slow bicycle race, the last contestant crossing the line winning. Walter Spooner, Rollie Bush and Richard Wells won the first three places and received the prizes of $3, $2 and $1, respectively.

The greased pole climb at the Corn Exchange at 11:30 was won by 6 boys, James Lyke, Walter Adamany, Justin Gokey, Harry Randall and Varianum Manz. That in the court house park at 3:45 was won by Eugene Delaney, Joseph Delaney, James Lyke, Gustave Oltterbury and Percy Manz. The prizes were $5.

At noon the centipede race for boys was held on South Main street. There were four teams of six each entered. The winning team consisted of Crosby Summers, Cecil Black, Garfield, Nanz, Raymond, Fagel, Charles Nightingale and Conrad Knelp. The winners of second place were Frank Neelsen, John Tobias, Otto Litke, William Bartel, Harold Rheinke and William Showers. The prizes were $4 and $2.

Other Race Winners.

There was a lack of entries in the bicycle race and coaster race for boys at 12:30. In the first, Ralph Aegelter and John Gunderson, the only contestants, got the prizes of $4 and $2. Kenneth Lovell won $3 in the coaster race, and William Menzies and Ross Timm $2 and $1.50 for second and third places. They were the only contestants.

Shelby Event to Spell End of Profiteer Rule

(An Associated Press.)

New York.—The financial circles attending the Dempsey-Gibbons fight yesterday at Shelby probably have sounded the death knell of extortion purges for title matches, boxing circles here today were convinced.

Reaction on the part of both promoters and public from the high finance that has threatened the popularity of the fist game has been apparent for some time but it reached a climax yesterday in the price the little Kentucky town paid for its picturesque spectacle.

Tender Adds Fuel

If additional proof of this menace to the sport were needed it was supplied on the same day by the fiasco at Michigan City, where Lew Tendler, Philadelphia lightweight contender, refused to go through with his match with Sailor Frenchie, of Chicago, at the last minute when promoters failed to provide the full amount of his purse.

The cost of Shelby's bitter lesson is estimated in round figures at $200,000. The mirage of financial success prompted promoters to guarantee Dempsey a purse of $310,000 but the receipts probably will not amount to half that sum.

Samples in New York

Because of the gamble, Jack Kearns, the champion's manager, took on his last fight in order to avert an eleven-hour collapse of the match. Dempsey will not get his full amount, but even so he is

After nine innings the score was 10 to 10 and no more innings could be played as it was late in the afternoon.

Miss Ruth Perkins, Chicago, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jay Perkins.

Miss Ethel Allen who has been staying with her sister, Doris, who is a patient at the Janesville Mercy Hospital, came home Monday evening for a brief stay.

John Hayes spent Monday in Chicago.

St. C. Denison, Madison, came home Sunday for a two days' stay.

ready has received, by the payment of $210,000 more than he was paid for any other match except that with Georges Carpentier, when his share was $300,000. But Shelby's is not the only record of financial failure in pugilism this year. New York, where the game has the best opportunity of any place in the country to attract crowds, has had two recent examples.

While no definite figures were revealed, the Polo Grounds Athletic club was understood to have lost heavily on two title bouts—the match between Johnny Kilbane and Eugene Criqui for the featherweight crown and two weeks later the contest between Jimmy Wilde and Fanchito Villa for the flyweight championship. The deficit of both was said to run close to $100,000.

Purses, Admission too High

The root of failure in each case was largely the same as that at Shelby—the fact that big purses were given the champions, Wilde and Fanchito, both of whom were decisively beaten, plus the fact that admission charges proved too high to suit the average fight fan.

Both contingencies have been recognized by Tom O'Rourke, Polo Grounds matchmaker, who announced that fighters he signs in the future must box on a percentage basis only and limited the top prize seats to $10 for championship matches, a cut of more than 50 percent.

In New York state the boxing laws prohibit the principals in any title match receiving more than 50 percent of the gross gate receipts, but it is an open secret that promoters, while technically complying with the law, have guaranteed additional amounts on the side to satisfy the demands of title holders.

Garden promoter, who has staged more world's title fights than any other figure in the game, has for some time opposed the trend toward larger purses. His withdrawal from bidding for a heavyweight title contest between Dempsey and one of several contenders last winter was prompted, he said, by a desire to curb financial flight toward which the game was headed.

"The public has had enough of big purses and excessive demands by boxers and their managers," Rickard declared Thursday. "Shelby should be the lesson that brings an end to it, and establishes the game on a normal basis once more."

Garden promoter, who has staged more world's title fights than any other figure in the game, has for some time opposed the trend toward larger purses. His withdrawal from bidding for a heavyweight title contest between Dempsey and one of several contenders last winter was prompted, he said, by a desire to curb financial flight toward which the game was headed.

"The public has had enough of big purses and excessive demands by boxers and their managers," Rickard declared Thursday. "Shelby should be the lesson that brings an end to it, and establishes the game on a normal basis once more."

The Riddle of the Spinning Wheel

By M. E. and T. W. HANSHEW

Being an Exploit in the Career of Hamilton Cleek, Detective
Copyright, 1922, by Doubleday, Page & Co., and published by arrangement with McClure Newspaper Syndicate of New York City.

SYNOPSIS.
In deadly fear of the lives of her father and others in the Duggan home at Ayton castle, Miss Duggan seeks help from Scotland Yard. Hamilton Cleek, under the name of Deland, takes up the attempt to solve the mystery of the Spinning Wheel, which on occasions and without the aid of human hands starts running. The head of the house is the old, feeble Sir Andrew Duggan, his son by a first wife, the daughter and a second wife—a French woman and her son, Cyril, it is believed, the wife is plotting for the death of all in order that her son may be the heir of the estate. Cleek starts his investigations.

"Yes. And then, aligned to you. They'll be along presently. I suppose—possibly—yes. I'd have brought my own man if I had only known. Mr. Narkom will be here in the morning to take charge of affairs. I sent for him today. And the rest of the household."

"Cyril is with his mother. Wakened up out of his sleep, poor boy, by all the commotion, and of course hardly aware of what was going on. Somebody has happened here in his own home. The servants are huddled together like frightened rabbits, and the women refuse to put in any appearance at all. Miss McCall has been trying to get them in hand—she's so quiet and yet so resourceful, you know, Mr. Deland—and she has helped us such a lot in that way."

"And that accounts for every one, then? No one left the house since the thing took place?"

"Not a soul. There was no reason to, you see. And no one has been here either. Callers to Ayton castle are few and far between. Mr. Deland, as you can imagine. We're so very far from civilization."

"I see. And no one's been to the place at all, you say. Even on the immediate family, and this Miss—Miss Duggan and your brother's fiancée? They returned with him, I suppose, after having persuaded him not to take such a foolish and risky way of the case which I heard this morning? Well, I'm glad he came back, if only—for this. Poor chap! It will ease his conscience, and that is the only consolation to the only people who have entered this place to-night, Miss Duggan? You are positive of that?"

She lifted wide eyes to his face. There was conviction in every line of her own.

"Absolutely positive, Mr. Deland," she said, "that the man who right Cleek nodded slowly at her but his lips were grim. Either she or MacDonald had lied. For he had heard him say, in that broken, staccato voice of his, "I've just come from there, you see, and was on my way home again." And a dollar to a duck that she was not at fault. Well, the man MacDonald would not have watching. And if he had "done bunk," as the boys say, he would know his man instantly and scout all his investigations for him—though at present his motive for connection with the crime was certainly unknown.

He sent his keen eyes over her own face, and came to his own conclusion. Here was no liar, if he knew the signs. Then he leaned toward her.

"Now," said he, "just tell me what happened. All about it. Don't leave anything out—not the worst little thing. How did you all happen to be in the library in the first place?"

"As I told you, Father had summoned us all there for the purpose of distributing the property of his name from his will, and in the presence of witnesses substituting another instead."

"And whose name, may I ask?" she asked, her head aching, and put one hand against her cheek.

"Mina, Mr. Deland."

"Mina?"

"Yours."

"Oh! And not young Cyril's, then?"

"Yes. Upon that Father was adamant. He said justice must be done to the elder family—that is Ross and me, as you know—and he would see justice done. If Ross could not have the right inheritance because of his unfitness (poor Ross) then it was to come to me, unless I saw fit to marry Captain MacDonald. In that case it all went to him. Naturally, I protested with him."

"Why?"

TODAY'S RECIPES

Cracked Wheat with Dates.—Cook the evening before as it needs to be cooked slowly for at least an hour. Roast in double boiler in morning. In the summer it is nice and cold, served cold. When ready to serve add chopped dates.

Coddled Eggs.—To cook eggs so they will not be tough and indigestible, put them in a saucepan of boiling water, cover closely and place on the stove where the water will remain very hot, but not boil, for about 10 minutes. The amount of water, and the number of eggs govern the time limit somewhat.

Corn Custard.—Corn custard, served as a vegetable, is not a new dish in some localities, and is a good food. Desires to be more widely known.

One can of corn, one teaspoon salt, pepper to taste, one and one-half cups milk, one tablespoon butter, two eggs, one cup sugar, two eggs, one cup milk with milk and when cooled a little add beaten eggs and seasonings, pour into a buttered baking dish and bake in a slow oven in a pan of water until firm.

Potatoes with Pork Chops.—Wash, pare and cut potatoes into thin slices. Put layer in well buttered casserole, sprinkle with salt and pepper, dress with a little flour and dot with bits of butter. Repeat until you have the amount necessary. Add top milk until you can see through the top layer. Place on top of potatoes a layer of pork chops, and bake about an hour in moderate oven, removing cover toward the last to brown chops.

Lettuce and Cress Salad.—Wash, drain and chill a small head of lettuce and a bunch of water cress. The lettuce should be very carefully washed and washed. Shred a few lettuce leaves and the cress. Arrange the heart leaves of lettuce around salad bowl. Mix six tablespoons salad oil with three of vinegar, one-half cup of salted oil, and one-half cup of paprika. Mix lightly with the shredded lettuce and cress and heap in the center of the salad dish. Garnish with hard-boiled eggs, or stuffed olives thinly sliced.

Heart and Home Problems

BY ELIZABETH THOMPSON. Letters May Be Addressed to Mrs. Thompson, in Care of the Gazette.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I am a girl 15 years of age and am considered good-looking and popular among both boys and girls. I play the violin with an orchestra nearly every night. I have several boy friends, but one I like particularly well. He is from another town and just about my age. He comes from a well-known family, but is accustomed to going a good deal when his parents do not know where he is. Because of this and also his nationality my parents dislike him. I had invited him up to my home yesterday afternoon, as he was in town, but my parents objected and I had to tell him he couldn't come. My sister is 17 years old and she isn't allowed to go with boys much. Don't you think my parents are too strict?

Would you advise me to give up this boy friend and walk until my parents consent to my going with boys? I realize that I am too young to go with boys, but I play at dances so much that I am not enjoying my high school days as much as I would like to. I will appreciate an answer as I would like to know what to do.

BESSIE J.

I hardly believe your parents are too strict. You are too young to go with boys, and especially with a boy who is accustomed to going places without his parents' knowledge. By all means give him up since your parents forbid you to see him. In regard to your sister, since she is only 17, it is quite reasonable that she should be permitted to go with boys occasionally, but not all the time by any means.

Try to get your parents' point of view and realize that they have your interests at heart and are not merely trying to be contrary. Dear Mrs. Thompson: I have been going with a boy who went with me the summer with his grandmother. He asked me to write to him before he went and I promised I would. Just as soon as I heard from him, he wrote the boy after he got there, and so it wouldn't look as if I were in too much of a hurry I waited two days before I answered. I got another letter which I answered and that was all. It has been two weeks since I looked after during pregnancy. There is no attempt in this article to scare a woman into hurrying to a doctor, but a certain amount of good looking after is as necessary to a healthy baby as any of the other things which a woman must do during this period.

The urine tests are too well known and their value too important to be overlooked. Though the blood pressure can be foretold certain kidney troubles which may arise and which cause uric acid mischief if not attended to. This is one very necessary reason why the doctor should be visited often. Then the routine examinations which the doctor will make when the condition is first discovered will give him an inkling as to kind of patient he will have to take care of and he can make the best possible plans for taking care of her.

This is not coddling oneself, not being silly, it is just plain common sense and much more economical in the end than to call in a doctor at the last moment to deliver the baby and then blame him if everything does not go right.

There are many things which may arise during pregnancy that the skilled eye will detect and overcome which if allowed to run on would and might cause a miscarriage, a still-born child, or some of the mishapens which follow a birth in which the mother's condition has not been looked after during pregnancy. There is no attempt in this article to scare a woman into hurrying to a doctor, but a certain amount of good looking after is as necessary to a healthy baby as any of the other things which a woman must do during this period.

Your Baby and Mine

Mrs. Eldred is happy to advise any mother about the care of their children of any age, or on any subject which does not belong in the field of the doctor.

PRENATAL EXAMINATION.
When young prospective mothers write and ask me a number of questions about when to expect their babies, and especially when they have not talked to a physician. This is a vitally necessary thing. The pregnant woman may feel herself in the best possible health. She may be suffering from one of the ailments that seem to belong to the condition and yet she has no right to avoid a physician. She is doing herself an injury as well as the doctor whom she calls in at the last moment to take care of her.

Aunt Eppie Hogg, the Fattest Woman in Three Counties—

By Fontaine Fox

Do you think it would be all right for me to write to him, quite often now that I know he is sick and not wait for any answers? I feel badly already to think that he has gone almost two weeks without hearing a word from me.

I don't want him to think I am running after him, but if I can do anything to cheer him up it would certainly please me to do so.

KATHERINE.

Since you know that the boy is sick with scarlet fever, I would advise you to write to him often. It is a disagreeable illness and he will appreciate your letters very much. I am sure that there will be no thought of your running after him.

WITH THE FARMERS Farm Bureau Official Information

STOCK COMMITTEE TO MEET JULY 11

Will Advise Farm Bureau on Show Herds and Livestock Policies.

Representatives of the different breed associations and the Farm Bureau will meet Wednesday evening, July 11, in the court house here for the purpose of formulating a policy to be followed with the Rock county show herds and demonstration exhibits.

In addition to the breed associations, breeders of livestock not represented by a county association, have agreed upon a representative to appear at this meeting. All matters pertaining to the Rock county demonstration train will be discussed and advice the Farm Bureau on livestock development.

The representatives named to date for breeds of cattle are as follows: Holsteins, John Fisher, Janesville; Brown Swiss, Bert Skinner, Beloit; Jersey, H. C. Taylor, Beloit; Milking Shorthorns, Robert Traynor, Koshkonong; Guernseys, Dr. Wayne Mum, Janesville.

Breeders will be named to represent the swine associations so that in the end, there will be a representative organization to meet with the Farm Bureau to discuss county-wide livestock problems.

LAKES PARK BILL SENT TO BLAINE

(By Associated Press.)

Madison.—The Blaine bill, appropriating $300,000 for the purchase of the Northern Lakes Park in Price and Sawyer counties, has been sent to Governor Blaine for his signature. Reports about the capital are to the effect that the governor will again disapprove of the measure, as he did two years ago.

The legislature voted by large majorities to buy the 5,000 acres of virgin timber land included in the Northern Lakes Park region. It approved acquisition of this area which represents the last of the uncut forest in Wisconsin, as well as having attractive lakes and interesting wild life.

Governor Blaine, two years ago, took the attitude that the financial condition of the state was such that purchase of this land would be extravagant. He is expected by his friends again to veto the park plan.

VETERAN CARPENTER BURIED AT OREGON

Oregon.—Funeral services were held here Tuesday for Charles Wolfe, 69, carpenter contractor, who died Sunday at the home of his son, Max, at Madison. Mr. Wolfe was born in Oregon, was twice married and was the father of four children. He resided here until three years ago. He is survived by his wife, three sons, Frank, Chicago; Max, Madison; and Rex, Seattle, and one daughter, Jeanette, Madison. Clarence Wolfe, Oregon; Frank, Beloit; Harry, Raleigh, South Dakota; and Percy, Madison, are brothers. Five sisters are living.—Mrs. Jonny Yager, Madison; Mrs. May Hall, Colorado Springs; Mrs. Josie Millspaugh, Brooklyn; Mrs. Carrie Yager, Chicago, and Mrs. Hattie McWilliams, Oregon. Max had charge of services at the grave.

The directors of the Rock County Agricultural association are as follows: W. S. Gollman, president; Riley Seales, vice president; Dr. C. S. Ware, secretary and Leonard P. Eager, treasurer. The directors are: Z. W. Miller, Edward Hyne, Phil D. Fearnsall, J. C. Robinson, R. H. Harvey, O. C. Jones, R. C. Seales, L. E. Campbell, Leonard Eager, Fred Brunzell, Dr. C. S. Ware, E. H. Bick, Rev. W. P. McDermott and Arthur Devine.

Superintendents named are as follows: Grant Hancy, horses; J. B. Green, cattle; L. H. Campbell, swine; George Emery, sheep; Harry Blakeley, poultry; Charles Povles, agriculture; L. A. Baldwin, horticulture; Mrs. O. Jones, flowers; Mrs. Maud Wall, women's department; Mrs. Madge Robinson, fine arts; Mrs. W. C. Schneider, culinary; Mrs. Maude Axtell, youths; Miss Amy Egan, education; J. W. Christman, machinery; W. S. Gollman, grounds; R. C. Seales, privileges; Ralph Harvey, gates and grandstand and Z. W. Miller, automobiles.

Miss Anna Luetscher, county nurse, has been named superintendent of the health department. Prizes are offered for the healthiest baby for the health posters.

Increased premiums are offered in the livestock department the scale of premiums generally running $15, $10 and $5 with $10 for the champion.

The grand championships between the different breeds nets $50 with an entry fee of 20 percent of the purse. All herd premiums will be divided $35, $25 and $15.

Four free seats have been listed on the entertainment program along with a fast series of races.

NONESUCH PARADE SETS NEW RECORD

Comedy Predominates In Greatest July 4th March
In City's History.

For length, gorgeousness of color, comedy, and variety of floats, horseback riders and those walking, the Nonesuch Brothers' parade of Wednesday night probably has never equaled in Janesville.

It was acclaimed by the many thousands who made the sidewalks all up and down Main and Milwaukee streets a solid mass of humanity, as truly wonderful. There was much music, with seven bands on foot and in floats, while dancers' floats, had special music.

Costumes were more gorgeous than have ever been seen in a home talent parade, because many of those for the pageant were used. Cleverness was evident throughout, made possible by a great evidence of hospitality that caused the entire Fourth of July celebration to be a great success. An attractive feature of the parade was that no advertising floats were allowed and each float was thus either one of beauty or comedy.

Long line of March
The parade formed on South Jackson, Franklin and Galena streets, crossed the Racine street bridge, came up the hill and turned right on Milwaukee street, turning up East Milwaukee street, up North bluff, down First street, up North Main and then on to Milwaukee, where it continued to Academy street.

Lowered and each float was thus either one of beauty or comedy. It started on time, as nearly as parades are expected to do, and long floats were infrequent giving the whole parade snap.

presentation of those days and to live forever in the annals of Janesville. The Indian life with its spectacular incidents, the capture of the Hall girls, the wedding of White Rose and Namah, the speech of Black Hawk, the sensational abduction of Blue Bird by Strong Bow and all the rest including the battle on the front line and the surrender of Black Hawk to the dragoons, was as true to history as the limitations of pageantry could make them.

The pioneer scenes with the dances and action, the men and women of those days whose names and deeds are a part of Janesville's and Rock county's records, the costumes, the bits of by-play and all the colorful costumes, made them among the best and recipients of applause.

Receipts from the pageant Tuesday evening were $1400 and on Wednesday, $1800. The threatening storm and the storm itself, which swept all the section around Janesville frightened hundreds away or kept them at home. It was reported in Milton that Janesville was in darkness and that pageant had been postponed. In many places about the city, rain fell in torrents and reports from every section showed that Janesville, with a delightful night, cool enough to be comfortable and with only a few rain drops, was favored locally.

"Lady Luck," which had been present all through the day and Wednesday night was still on the job.

Ralph Jack, leader of the high school band, was one of the features with his announcements.

Matheson Is Speaker
The outstanding need in the life of our nation and in the life of the world is religion," said Assemblyman Alexander E. Matheson in his independence day address in the court house park Wednesday morning.

Approximately 500 heard the address, and the old fashioned patriotic exercises attending it.

Drawing examples from the scriptures and history, Mr. Matheson stressed the need of religion in all lines of endeavor. "Though we have wealth, riches, present power and opportunities and religious and charitable agencies and everything else, if we lack the spiritual leavening, if we lack the moral force, we are failing as a nation," was the message that he left with his hearers.

The invocation was given by the Rev. P. P. Case, "America," by the band; Declaration of Independence, Miss Phyllis Luchminger; and Lincoln's Gettysburg address, Albert Noyes, and the selection, "The Boy of the Old Brigade," and "When the Flag Goes By," by the Bower City Quartet composed of J. A. Olsen, E. Van Pool, P. K. Doane and J. C. Koller.

The "Star Spangled Banner" by the band completed the patriotic program.

Many Novel Contests.
The racing schedule started at 11 a. m. with a slow bicycle race, the last contestant crossing the line with-ning. Walter Spooner, Rollie Bush and Richard Wells won the first three places and received the prizes of $3, $2 and $1 respectively.

At noon the centipede race for boys was held on South Main street. There were four teams of six each entered. The winning team consisted of Crosby Summers, Cecil Black, Garfield Nanz, Raymond Fagel, Charles Nightingale and Conrad Knisp.

The winners of second place were Frank Neelsen, John Tobias, Otto Little, William Bartell, Harold Rehnke and William Showers. The prizes were $4 and $2.
Other Race Winners
There was a race of entries in the bicycle race and coaster race for boys at 12:30. In the first, Ralph Aegerter and John Gunderson, the only contestants, got the prizes of $4 and $2. Kenneth Lovell won $3 in the coaster race, and William Menzies and Ross Timm $2 and $1.50 for second and third places. They were the only contestants.

SAYS SHAMPOO WITH OLIVE OIL TO HAVE GLOSSY HAIR

Glossy, soft and shining hair is not so hard to have as you think. Beauty specialists now say to shampoo with olive oil—that is the secret. Because it is the mildest of cleansers; leaves hair soft and pliant, gleaming richly. Thousands of the heads of beautiful hair you see are due to it. The simplest, dorn and easiest to use is Palmolive Shampoo. Thoroughly cleans the hair, and scalp—removes all dandruff, and scales—leaves hair dry or brittle. You can obtain it at any drug or department store for a few cents a bottle. It works wonders. Use it just once, and you will note the improvement.

Shelby Event to Spell End of Profiteer Rule

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.)
New York.—The financial disaster of the Dempsey-Gibbons fight yesterday at Shelby probably has sounded the death knell of exorbitant purses for title matches, boxing circles here today were convinced.

Reaction on the part of both promoters and public from the high finance that has threatened the popularity of the fist game has been apparent for some time but it reached a climax yesterday. In the price the "title" Montana town paid for its picturesque spectacle.

Tender Addis Friel

If additional proof of this menace to the sport were needed it was supplied on the same day by Lew Jacobs at Michigan City, where Lew Fendler, Philadelphia lightweight contender, refused to go through with his match with Sailor Freeman, of Chicago, at the last minute.

The full amount of his purse, the prize of Shelby's bitter lesson is estimated in round figures at $200,000. The mirage of financial success prompted promoters to guarantee Dempsey a purse of $300,000 but the receipts probably will not amount to half that sum.

Summaries in New York

Because of the gambler Jack Kearns, the champion's manager, took on his last $100,000 in order to avert an eleventh hour collapse of the match, Dempsey will not get his full amount, but even so he is

Garden promoter, who has staged more world's title fights than any other figure in the game, has for some time opposed the trend toward larger purses. His withdrawal from bidding for a heavyweight title contest between Dempsey and one of several contenders last winter was prompted, he said, by a desire to curb financial flight toward which the game was headed.

"The public has had enough of big purses and excessive demands by boxers and their managers," Rickard declared Thursday. "Shelby should be the lesson that brings an end to it, and establishes the game on a normal basis once more."

The New Self-Hanging Vudor Ventilating Porch Shades

To get real, continuous, every-day, all Summer long pleasure from your porch, it must be protected from the sun. This is evident to all of us—but simply protection from the sun does not make your porch habitable—far from it. You must have ventilation. The hot air must be removed from the top of the porch.

The New Patented VUDOR VENTILATING SHADE

permits the hot air to escape from the top of the porch through a wide open VENTILATOR woven in the shade itself at the extreme top, where the sun cannot shine in upon you. This Vudor woven-in-the-shade Ventilator automatically clears the porch of impure hot air and permits a continuous, gentle circulation of air without drafts.

The Only Shade Made With A Ventilator

The New VUDOR Self-Hanging Device enables you to hang a shade in five minutes—not a screw used. The old way of attaching a shade to the porch with screws took twenty minutes or more. With the new Self-Hanging way you can unhook the shade in the Fall—if you wish—and rehang it in the Spring in less than two minutes and this doubles the life of the Shade.

Let us demonstrate the new VUDORS for you.

The Riddle of the Spinning Wheel

By M. E. and T. W. HANSHEW

Being an Exploit in the Career of Hamilton Cleek, Detective.
Copyright, 1922, by Doubleday, Page & Co., and published by arrangement with McClure Newspaper Syndicate of New York City.

SYNOPSIS.
In a deadly war of the lives of her father and others in the Duggan home at Argon castle, Maud Duggan seeks help from Scotland Yard. Hamilton Cleek, under the name of Deland, takes up the attempt to solve the mystery of the Spinning Wheel, which on occasions and without the aid of human hands starts running. Invariably a death follows. The head of the house is the old man, Sir Andrew Duggan, his son by a first wife, the daughter and a second wife—a French woman and her son, Cyril. It is believed that the wife is plotting for the death of all in order that her son may inherit the estates. Cleek starts his investigations.

"Yes. And then signalled to you. They'll be along presently. I suppose."

"Possibly—yes. I'd have brought my own man if I had only known. Mr. Narkom will be here in the morning to take charge of the trial of the man today. And the rest of the household."

"Cyril is with his mother. Wakened up out of his sleep, poor boy, by all the commotion, and of course hardly aware of what was going on. A tragedy had happened here in his own home. The servants are huddled together like frightened rabbits, and the woman refuses to put in any more of what she calls a 'tea'—she's so quiet and yet so resourceful, you know, Mr. Deland—and she has helped us such a lot in that way."

"And that accounts for every one, then? No one left the house since the thing took place?"

"Not a soul. There was no reason to, you see. And no one has been here, either. Outside, Mr. Cleek, a few and far between. Mr. Deland, as you can imagine, we're so very far from civilization."

"I see. And no one's been to the place at all, you say? Beyond the immediate family, of course. Miss Dowd and your brother's fiancée? They returned with him, I suppose, after having persuaded him not to take any more of the morning's case which I heard this morning? Well, I'm glad he came back. It only—for this. Poor chap! It will ease his conscience, at any rate. And those two Irish people who have entered this place to-night. Miss Duggan? You are positive of that?"

Household Hints

Cracked Wheat with Dates. Cream. Coddled Eggs. Coffee. Luncheon. Spinach. Butter. Strawberry Preserves. Cocoa. Dinner.

Escalloped Potatoes with Pork Chops. New Carrots. Buttered. Lettuce and Cress. Salad. Graham Bread. Quince Jelly. Canned Peas. Spoonage. Cake. Coffee or Substitute.

TODAY'S RECIPES.
Cracked Wheat with Dates.—Cook in the evening before as it needs to be cooked slowly for at least an hour. Reheat in double boiler in morning. In the summer it is nice molded and served cold. When ready to serve add a chopped date.

Coddled Eggs.—To cook eggs so they will not be tough and indigestible, put them in a saucepan of boiling water, cover closely and place on the stove where the water will remain very hot, but not boil, for about 10 minutes. The amount of water and the number of eggs govern the time limit somewhat.

Corn Custard.—Corn custard, served as a vegetable, is not a new dish in some localities, and it is as good if it deserves to be more widely known. One can of corn, one teaspoon salt, pepper to taste, one and one-half cups milk, one tablespoon butter, two teaspoons sugar, two eggs. Scald corn with milk and when cooled a little add seasonings and beat well. Pour into a buttered baking dish and bake in a slow oven in a pan of water until firm.

Potatoes with Parsi Chops.—Wash, pare and cut potatoes into thin slices. Put layer in well buttered casserole, sprinkle with salt and pepper, dredge with a little flour and dot with bits of butter. Repeat until you have the amount necessary. Add to the top layer. Place on top of potatoes seasoned pork chops, and bake about an hour in moderate oven, removing cover toward the last half hour. Chop lettuce and wash. Arrange the heart leaves of lettuce around salad bowl. Mix six tablespoons salad oil with three of vinegar, one-half teaspoon salt and one-fourth teaspoon paprika. Mix lightly with the shredded lettuce and cress and heap in the center of the salad dish. Garnish with hard-boiled egg, or stuffed olives thinly sliced.

Lettuce and Cress Salad.—Wash, drain and chill a small head of lettuce and a bunch of water cress. The latter should be very carefully cleaned and washed. Shred a few lettuce leaves and the cress. Arrange the heart leaves of lettuce around salad bowl. Mix six tablespoons salad oil with three of vinegar, one-half teaspoon salt and one-fourth teaspoon paprika. Mix lightly with the shredded lettuce and cress and heap in the center of the salad dish. Garnish with hard-boiled egg, or stuffed olives thinly sliced.

Heart and Home Problems

Letters May Be Addressed to Mrs. Thompson, in Care of the Gazette.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I am a girl 18 years of age and am considered good-looking and popular among boys and girls. I play the violin with an orchestra nearly every night. I have several boy friends, but one I like particularly well. He is from another town and just about my age. He comes from a well-known family, but is accustomed to going a good deal when his parents don't know where he is. Because of this and also his nationality my parents dislike him. I had invited him to go with boys much yesterday afternoon, as he was in town, but my parents objected and I had to tell him he couldn't come. My sister is 17 years old and she isn't allowed to go with boys much. Don't you think my parents are too strict?

Would you advise me to give up this boy friend and wait until my parents consent to my going with boys? I realize that I am too young to go with boys, but I play at dances so much that I am not enjoying my high school days as much as I would like to. I will appreciate an answer as I would like to know what to do.

I hardly believe your parents are too strict. You are too young to go with boys, and especially with a boy who is accustomed to going places without his parents' knowledge. By all means give him up since your parents forbid you to see him. In regard to your sister, since she is only 17, it is quite reasonable that she should be permitted to go with boys occasionally, but not all the time by any means.

Try to get your parents' point of view and realize that they have interests at heart and are merely trying to be contrary.

Dear Mr. Thompson: I have been going with a boy who went to spend the summer with his grandmother. He asked me to write to him before he went and I wrote him a letter. I wrote just as soon as I heard from him. He wrote the day after he got there, and so it wouldn't look as if I were in too much of a hurry. I waited two days before I answered. Then I got another letter which I answered and that was all. It has been two weeks since I

Dinner Stories

Cohen, accompanied by his wife, visited an oculist to have his eyes examined.

"Now, Mr. Cohen," ordered the oculist, "close your right eye and read the sentence."

The patient read the sentence:

"THAT'S MUCH BETTER"

whereupon he was asked to close his left eye this time and repeat the performance by reading another line of words.

At this point he hesitated. Removing his right eye he says to his wife and transferred it to her with a whisper:

"Here, Bocky, you'd better hold on to this for a while. You never can tell when he'll want me to close both eyes at the same time."

"When I was in India," said the London club here, "I saw a tiger come down to the water where some women were washing clothes. It was a very fierce tiger, but one woman, with great presence of mind, splashed some water in its face—and it slunk away."

"Gentlemen," said a man in an armchair, "I can vouch for the truth of this story. Some minutes after the incident occurred I was coming down to the water. I met this tiger, and as my habit, I stroked its whiskers. Gentlemen, those whiskers were wet."

The great Thurston was producing eggs from a wall he says the Pennsylvania Punch Bowl. With his characteristic humor, he addressed a boy on the front row:

"Your mother can't get eggs without hens, can she?"

"Oh, yes," quickly replied the boy.

"How's that?" nervously asked the conjurer.

"She keeps ducks," chuckled the youngest.

Your Baby and Mine

By MYRTLE MEYER ELDERD

Mrs. Eldred is happy to advise all mothers about the care of their children of any age, or on any subject which does not belong in the field of the doctor.

When young prospective mothers write and ask me a number of questions about when to expect their babies, etc., I feel sure that they have not talked to a physician. This is a really necessary thing. The pregnant woman may feel herself in the best possible health, she may be suffering none of the ailments that seem to belong to the condition, and yet she has no right to avoid a physician. She is doing herself an injury as well as the doctor whom she calls in at the last moment to take care of her.

There are many things which may arise during pregnancy that the mother will detect and overcome which if allowed to run on would and might cause a miscarriage, a still-born child, or some of the mishapens which follow a birth in which the mother's condition has not been looked after during pregnancy. There is no attempt in this article to scare a woman into hurrying to a doctor, but a certain amount of good looking after is as necessary to a healthy baby as any of the other things which a woman must do during this period.

The urine tests are too well known and their value too important to be overlooked. Though the blood pressure can be foretold certain kidney troubles which may arise and which cause untold mischief if not attended to. This is one very necessary reason why the doctor should be visited often. Then the routine examinations which the doctor will make when the condition is first discovered will give him an inkling as to kind of patient he will have to take care of and he can make the best possible plans for taking care of her.

This is not coddling oneself, not being silly, it is just plain common sense and much more economical in the end than to call in a doctor at the last moment to deliver the baby and then blame him if everything does not go right.

Luxury is cheaply purchased when it takes the form of a beautifying bath. I can't think of any other part of a woman's toilet that can cost more, or that need cost less. Scented bath crystals and fancy bags of herb have the most extraordinary prices in some shops—yet you can duplicate everything at home with little trouble and almost no expense.

Do you live in the country? If so, you can grow herbs for the bath—the pungent, sweet smelling kind are the most pleasant to use. Rosemary is delightful and so is lavender. Some cause they are astringent and stimulating. You can take plain colorless vinegar, which is cheap enough to buy in quantity, add herbs to it and use this in the bath. Parsley, by the way, is very bleaching. If you don't mind its odor, a small bagful, crushed into the hot water of the bath, will benefit your skin.

If you want a real sea salt bath, and can't buy the bags of sea salt, buy the following—sulphate of potassium half a drachm, sulphate of sodium, one and a half ounces, sulphate of magnesium, one ounce. Chloride of magnesium, three drachms, chloride of calcium, one ounce, chloride of sodium half a pound. Sounds complicated, doesn't it, but it isn't. There is no need of two baths and it's cleansing, stimulating and healing to tender spots on the skin.

Oatmeal in muslin bags, squeezed into the water, is very good too.

Bobby E.—Cocoa butter can be bought by the cake at any drug stores. Warm slightly before rubbing the cake over the palm of the hand that you intend using for massaging portions of the body you desire to fatten. Massage until the skin has taken up as much of the oil as it will absorb, and repeat the treatment every night as long as required.

Friday—Safeguards from the Sun. Looks that speak volumes never talk like a book.

Here's had news for the heas. "What?"
